

Visure Requirements Advanced

Agenda

Visure Requirements Basics course content, plus the following:

- Partitions, user groups and permissions.
- Modifying and creating blocks and block diagrams.
- Modifying and creating attributes and workflows.
- Reusability.
- Management Console: Settings, Users and Groups and Baselines.

Course delivery method

The course has a practical approach. Each core functional area of the tool is described, followed by exercises using the tool to ensure proper understanding of the concepts covered. Each student shall be able to test the concepts through direct access to the tool. During the practical exercises, an example database will be used; the data contained inside the database represents a generic project.

Audience

Business analysts, Systems engineers, Software engineers, Requirements engineers, Methods and tools team, Quality managers, Responsible for tool, Quality managers and Project managers.

Pre-requisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Description

This course includes the Visure Requirements Basic course and it adds more advanced capabilities, necessary for users who need to access functionality of the tools broader concepts, such as updates and modification of the project template to meet the specific needs of a new project or advanced functionality for creating, editing and analyzing requirements from different perspectives.

This course enables users and project managers, group leaders or small user groups, to have all the concepts needed to use Visure Requirements within the full life cycle of a project.

Objectives

- Create and edit items.
- Create traceability.
- Import data.
- Publishing data.
- Perform analysis of data.
- Setup a project.
- Understand reusability mechanisms.
- Manage and use baselines.

Schedule and time

The course will be conducted in 2 sessions of 8 hours.

Visure Solutions
+34 91 806 17 13
info@visuresolutions.com

www.visuresolutions.com