

Visure Requirements Basics

Agenda

- Introduction.
- Creating requirements.
- Editing requirements.
- Customizing the interface.
- Importing requirements.
- Creating traceability.
- Publishing documents.
- Browsing baselines.
- Basic change management.

Course delivery method

The course has a practical approach. Each core functional area of the tool is described, followed by exercises using the tool to ensure proper understanding of the concepts covered. Each student shall be able to test the concepts through direct access to the tool. During the practical exercises, an example database will be used; the data contained inside the database represents a generic project.

Audience

All Visure Requirements users.

Pre-requisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Description

This is an introductory course to Visure Requirements, aimed at all Visure Requirements users; covers the basic functionality of the tool needed for most of the tasks to be done with it.

Hands-on course, which enables a user to navigate through the tool, create and edit requirements, create traceability, and basic understanding of change control and analysis.

Objectives

- Navigate through the tool.
- Create items.
- Edit items.
- Create traceability.
- Data analysis.
- Publish data as documents.

Schedule and time

The course will be conducted in 1 session of 8 hours.

Visure Solutions
+34 91 806 17 13
info@visuresolutions.com